DISMISSAL ORDER

On May 23, 2008, the Administrative Hearings Division (AHD) received claimant's application for formal hearing. Pursuant to the application on June 3, 2008, AHD issued a Scheduling Order. The Scheduling Order notified the parties that this matter was scheduled for formal hearing on August 13, 2008 at 2:30 p.m. The Scheduling Order was mailed to both parties by regular and certified mail.

On July 30, 2008, this office received from employer represented by Assistant Attorney General, Rory Smith, an letter indicating that employer accepted the instant claimant on July 28, 2008. Therefore no controversy exists between the parties. Employer posits the Claimant's application for a formal hearing should be dismissed. The letter indicates that Claimant was mailed a copy of the letter through his counsel of record, Harold Levi, Esquire and therefore consents in the dismissal of hisapplication for hearing.

Based on the foregoing, the May 23, 2008, application for formal hearing is hereby Dismissed.

IT IS SO ORDERED,

FRED D. CARNEY, JR.,
ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
