Section A: Funding Opportunity Description

Scope

The District of Columbia Department of Employment Services (DOES), Division of State Initiatives (DSI) is seeking qualified organizations to provide specialized work readiness training services to District residents with barriers to employment that are enrolled in a Division of State Initiative program.

DOES is seeking organizations to deliver quality, structured and measurable work readiness training services and provide supportive services (i.e. intensive case management) intended to mitigate the effects of barriers to successful completion. Participants who are twenty years of age or older will be eligible to receive program services.

Background

DOES, Division of State Initiatives (DSI) oversees programs designed to serve District residents experiencing multiple barriers to permanent employment obtainment. Exhibited barriers may include previous incarceration, history of homelessness or substance abuse, and/or educational deficiencies. DSI's programs, which include Project Empowerment (PE), DC Career Connections (DCCC), Back 2 Work 50+ DC and the DC Jail Work Readiness Program, are designed according to the nationally recognized transitional jobs network program model. The programs provide job readiness and life skills training, short-term subsidized work experience, as well as ancillary services with the goal of providing program participants with the tools and experience necessary to obtain permanent, unsubsidized employment.

DOES DSI's transitional employment model has consistently proven effective; however, due to a lack of tangible skills, many participants face great difficulty entering industries that require technical skills that are developed through formal work readiness training. Understanding the limitations this places on participants, DOES DSI must continue sourcing work readiness training providers equipped to deliver substantive training to vulnerable populations.

Work Readiness Training Grant

Program Design Model

In addition to the core instructional programming which should be explained in the program narrative, the applicant should also include the following program elements in the service delivery model:

1. Recruitment and Enrollment

The grantees must recruit and enroll eligible DOES DSI participants through outreach efforts approved by DOES DSI. The selected grantees will have the ability to interview and complete their own assessments; however, the interview format and questions must be approved by DOES DSI in advance of implementation.

2. Orientation Services

Prior to participation in work readiness training, training providers must ensure candidates participate in an orientation that delivers key information and prepares candidates for the upcoming training. During the orientation the following must be provided:

- a. Where necessary, administration of a skills based assessment
- b. Assessment of the participants' employability skills and social service needs
- c. Training or workshops that outline expectations for what each participant will receive through the proposed training program.

3. Case Management and Support

Upon completion of the orientation, the grantee shall begin case management services. The grantee to provide at a minimum, a bi-weekly case management touch point. The bi-weekly touch point should include:

- Review of participant progress and support needed to continue in employment training;
- Creation of solutions/work plans to help the participants meet their individual goals where barriers may exist;
- Perform other duties, as appropriate.

4. Job Placement

The grantee shall facilitate job placement of 65% of candidates that successfully complete training and demonstrate competencies necessary for employment.

5. Minimum Staffing Requirements

Throughout period of performance the grantee must maintain minimum staffing requirements. Staffing requirements to facilitate services must be outlined in submitted proposal.

6. Branding/Marketing

Grantees shall incorporate the provided DOES logos, taglines, identifiers and/or other branding on all products, programs, activities, services, resources and related property and materials funded by DOES.

Outcomes

1. 75% of participants enrolled into the work readiness program must successfully complete the program.
2. Among those who successfully complete the program, 65% must demonstrate the necessary competencies for employment and be placed in a job.
3. Where applicable (if training program provides a certificate), 70% certification attainment rate for participants.

Rights and Responsibilities

The responses to this RFA must be reasonable and appropriate based on the information provided within this RFA. Additionally, the grantee shall not assign or otherwise transfer any rights, duties, obligations or interest in the agreement or arising hereunder to any person, entity or entities whatsoever without the prior written consent of DOES.

Source of Grant Funding

The funds are made available through District of Columbia appropriations. Funding for grant awards is contingent upon availability of funds, and quality and quantity of applications. This RFA does not commit DOES to make a grant award. DOES maintains the right to adjust the number of grant awards and grant award amounts based on funding availability, and quality and quantity of applications. Grant funds shall only be used to support activities specifically outlined in the scope of this RFA and included in the applicant's submission.

DOES may suspend or terminate an outstanding RFA, pursuant to its own grant-making policies or any applicable federal regulation or requirement.

Anticipated Number of Awards

DOES intends to make at least 1 grant award. DOES, however reserves the right to make additional awards or no awards pending availability of funds and the quality and quantity of applications.

Total Amount of Funding to be Awarded

The total amount of funding available for award is up to $800,000. Individual awards will not exceed $200,000 in funding.

Period of Performance

The "Workforce Readiness Training Grant" will operate for one (1) year from the date of award.

Option Years

DOES reserves the right to exercise single option years up to three additional years beyond the original period of performance, if funding is available in the designated option year and the grantee has met the performance requirements of the grant.

Location Requirements

For the purpose of this RFA, all applicants must currently hold office space in the District of Columbia and be able to provide program services in the District of Columbia. Each applicant must provide legal proof of ownership or occupancy of the site that will be used to host events.

Adequate proof of ownership or occupancy that may be submitted includes the following:

- Certificate of Occupancy issued by the Department of Consumer & Regulatory Affairs (DCRA) that shows the location has sufficient space to host the events proposed by the applicant;
- Building lease or rental agreement that is current and valid.

The applicant must submit written notice of any site changes within 24 hours of the proposed change. DOES must approve any site changes, prior to the proposed change.

Grant Making Authority

DOES maintains the rights to issue grant awards via the "Workforce Job Development Grant-Making Authority Act of 2012." DOES also maintains the right to adjust the number of grant awards and grant award amounts based on funding availability and the quality and quantity of applications. Funding for the award is contingent on availability of funds. The following are DOES' rights and responsibilities:

- To accept or deny any or all applications if the Agency determines it is in the best interest of the Agency to do so. DOES shall notify the applicant if it rejects that applicant's proposal. The Agency may suspend or terminate an outstanding RFA pursuant to its own grant making rule(s) or any applicable federal regulation or requirement.
- To issue addenda and/or amendments subsequent to the issuance of the RFA, or to rescind the RFA.
- To not be liable for any costs incurred in the preparation of applications in response to the RFA. Applicant agrees that all costs incurred in developing the application are the applicant's sole responsibility.

- To enter into negotiations with an applicant and adopt a firm funding amount or other revision of the applicant's proposal that may result from negotiations.

Section C: Application Format

Technical

The application should be double-spaced pages, typed in 12 point Times New Roman font with 1-inch margins.

Applicant Profile

Each application must include an Application Profile, which identifies the applicant type of organization, program service area and the amount of the funds requested.

Table of Contents

Each application must include a Table of Contents. The Table of Contents must list major sections of the application with a quick reference page indexing those sections.

Applicant Summary

Each application must include an Application Summary. This section of the application must summarize the major components of the application.

Program Narrative

The applicant must provide a full description of how the program will be carried out by responding to the application requirements in Section F. The three (3) main components of the program narrative are:

- Organizational Profile
- Participant Profile
- Program Description

Past Performance

Please provide any prior awarded contract or grant, evaluations and/or data that would highlight your organizations past performance and capability of successfully completing the stated program requirements. Also include a description of your organizations experience in successfully providing services to diverse populations with barriers to employment.

Budget Narrative

All applicants must submit an itemized budget and a budget narrative for all funds requested. The budget narrative should serve as an independent document that clearly outlines all proposed expenditures for the grant and does not count against the page limit outlined for the program narrative. For all applicants requesting capacity-building funds, this request should be submitted with a separate budget and budget narrative from the program-funding request. Both the capacity building and the program budget narratives must include timelines for expenditure of funds. For applicants that request capacity-building funds, applicants should note in their budget narrative their understanding that program-funding award is contingent upon DOES confirming completion of the capacity-building activities.

Budget narratives must detail how funds will be expended towards the program goals, as outlined in the program narrative. The budget section should also contain assurances that no funds received as a result of this grant will be used to supplant any formula funds dedicated towards the targeted population, administrative efforts, or other regularly occurring activities. All budget narratives must identify the average cost per participant.

Food for staff or participants enrolled in the program is not an allowable expense under this grant.

Section D: Program Narrative

Program Narrative (3 to 6 pages)

This section applies to each of the strategic categories and is where you clearly describe your proposed program in detail. Please ensure that you include each of the following:

- Describe how your organization will meet the performance deliverables outlined in this RFA. What specific activities, strategies and projects will participants be engaged in throughout the program.
- Detail specific timeline, topics, and potential partnerships you will use to carry out the program model.
- Provide a description of proposed sites where program activities will be conducted. If additional sites will be used to conduct the program, please describe how these sites will be acquired and utilized.

Section E: Application Review and Scoring

Review Panel

A review panel will be composed of a minimum of three individuals who have been selected for their unique experience and expertise in workforce and business development, data analysis, evaluation of programs and past performance, and social services planning and implementation. The review panel will review, score, and rank each application using the Technical Rating Scale in Table 1 against the established Scoring Criteria in Table 2

Table 1: Technical Rating Scale

Technical Rating Scale
Numeric Rating	Adjective	Description
0	Unacceptable	Fails to meet minimum requirements, (e.g., no demonstrated capacity); major deficiencies which are not correctable; Applicant did not address the factor
1	Poor	Marginally meets minimum requirements; major deficiencies which may be correctable
2	Minimally Acceptable	Marginally meets minimum requirements; minor deficiencies which may be correctable
3	Acceptable	Meets requirements; no deficiencies
4	Good	Meets requirements and exceeds some requirements; no deficiencies.

5	Excellent	Exceeds most, if not all, requirements; no deficiencies.
---	-----------	--

The technical rating is a weighting mechanism that will be applied to the point value for each scoring criterion to determine the applicant's score for each criterion. The applicant's total technical score will be determined by adding the applicant's score in each scoring criterion. For example, if a scoring criterion has a point value range of zero (0) to forty (40) points, using the Technical Rating Scale above, and the District evaluates the applicant's response as "Good," then the score for that criterion is 4/5 of 40 or 32.

Scoring Criteria

The review panel will review all applications that pass an initial internal checklist of required application components. Responsive applications will be evaluated strictly in accordance with the requirements stated in this RFA. Each reviewer will independently review and objectively score applications against the specific scoring criteria outlined in Table 2, based on a 100-point scale.

- Organization Profile 10 points
- Participant Profile 20 points
- Program Description 40 points
- Past Performance 15 points
- Budget and Budget Narrative 15 points
