DIRECTIVE: Administrative Issuance No. 16-01

TO: Compensation Review Board

Office of Workers' Compensation

FROM: Deborah A. Carroll DAE
Director

SUBJECT: Policy Directive Regarding the Award of Attorney Fees in District of Columbia Workers' Compensation Cases

The purpose of this policy directive is to revise and clarify the standards to be utilized in awarding attorney fees in workers' compensation cases.

Background

D.C. Code § 32-1530 and § 1-623.27 authorizes an award of a "reasonable" attorney's fee in specified circumstances provided the fee award does not exceed 20% of the actual benefit secured through the efforts of the attorney. In determining whether to award an attorney's fee, and the amount, the D.C. Department of Employment Services (DOES) has been guided by the factors set forth in 7 DCMR § 224 and 7 DCMR § 132:

- a. The nature and complexity of the claim including the adversarial nature, if any, of the proceeding;
- b. The actual time spent on development and presentation of the case;
- c. The dollar amount of benefits obtained and the dollar amount of potential future benefits resulting from the efforts of an attorney;

- d. The reasonable and customary local charge for similar services; and
- e. The professional qualifications of the representative and the quality of representation afforded to [the] employee.

DOES' May 12, 2005, Policy Directive Clarifying the Award of Attorney Fees in District of Columbia Workers' Compensation Cases is amended and revised so that the DOES' Labor Standards Bureau Office of Workers' Compensation (OWC), Administrative Hearings Division (AHD), and Compensation Review Board (CRB) shall process attorney fee applications as follows:

- 1. Effective July 1, 2016, the maximum hourly rate for an attorney's fee award shall be in accordance with the following schedule:

Number of Years of Practice Experience in Worker's Compensation Law	Maximum Hourly Rate Awardable

Above Two (2) years to five (5) years	$240.00
