

EXTENDED BENEFITS

UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE EXTENSION OF BENEFITS

PANDEMIC EMERGENCY UNEMPLOYMENT COMPENSATION (PEUC)

- ▶ To qualify for PEUC, your benefit year ending date must have expired after July 01, 2019
- ▶ Provides 13 weeks of additional benefits after all weeks of regular UI benefits are exhausted
- ▶ Available as of the benefit week ending April 4, 2020
- ▶ Expires benefit week ending December 26, 2020

EXTENDED BENEFITS (EB) PROGRAM

- ▶ To qualify for EB, your benefit year ending date must be on or after May 30, 2020
 - ▶ Provides 13 weeks of additional benefits after all weeks of PEUC are exhausted
 - ▶ Available as of the benefit week ending July 4, 2020
- Currently, the District qualifies for Extended Benefits under federal rules due to the high rate of unemployment. As the unemployment rate changes, availability of this program may also change

IMPORTANT TO REMEMBER

- You must file for PEUC and EB, it is not automatic. To file, please click the following link does.optimumui.com/#!/login and either click “File for PEUC” or “File for EB”
- If you are eligible for Pandemic Unemployment Assistance, you are not entitled to PEUC or EB
- If you are entitled to a regular unemployment claim in another state, you are not entitled to PEUC or EB
