MESSAGE FROM THE DIRECTOR

Greetings!

This past month, the Department of Employment Services (DOES) hosted and participated in a series of events. DOES continued to empower and sustain a diverse workforce by connecting District residents to resources and opportunities. In June, we celebrated the launch of summer programs and highlighted upcoming opportunities for district youth. In this issue, you will find a diverse recap from this past month for the agency and the District.

Thank you to our local community partners, employers, and District residents. It is officially summertime and DOES is ready for a month of workforce pride.

Dr. Unique Morris-Hughes
DOES Director

Tip of the Month: How to Be the Best Host

Having an intern in the office can be a lot of fun! It is the chance to get fresh ideas from young minds, but it is also a chance to train the intern for the related industry.

The question is, how do you create a successful program that benefits both the intern and the office?

MIDDLE SCHOOL EXPLORATION PROGRAM

Exploring careers in middle school helps students understand what they like, what they are good at and what they are passionate about. This knowledge helps them make informed decisions and sets them on a path to a successful future. Programming will run throughout the summer from the end of June 2023- August 2023. Interested Middle School youth can complete the Middle School Exploration Interest Form.

MAYOR BOWSER PRESENTS

CELEBRATING

in DC

Juneteenth
Unity, Culture, Connectedness

Crowds gathered at Black Lives Matter Plaza in downtown D.C. on Monday, June 19 to mark the day 158 years ago when the last enslaved people in the U.S. were told slavery was abolished.

The block party, organized by the Executive of the Mayor, featured live music performances, a kid zone with a bounce house, family friendly activities and lots of dancing.

Attendees participated in a workout class held by FitDC as part of a Juneteenth health and wellness fair at Franklin Park.
