Session Descriptions

Get to Know Your American Job Center (General Orientation)

This session is designed to provide participants with general information and services provided by the Department of Employment Services and the American Job Center programs, which include an overview of scheduled Performance Enhancement Sessions.

Writing a Professional Cover Letter

A well-written cover letter can increase the chances of an employer viewing your resume. Learn how to write a professional cover letter that best represents your skills and strengths applicable to your desired position.

Smart Resume: Tips, Tools, and Techniques

Your resume is your first impression. Learn how to structure your resume in a way that will stand out to employers. Discussion will include strategies on how to cater your resume to the job description, different resume styles, and using key words and phrases.

The Conversation That Gets the Job (Interviewing Skills)

Market your skills to the employer and prepare for a professional interview. Learn about panel interviewing, what not to say during an interview, and what to do after the interview is over.

Navigating dcnetworks.org

Learn the best strategies to connect with employers and their job postings online through dcnetworks.org. This session will provide you with necessary information to assist you in putting your best foot forward online. Find out about tools that will help you show employers who you are, alert you when new jobs are posted and improve your job search.

Successfully Submitting Online Job Applications

Participants will receive information on how to successfully apply for jobs online.

Microsoft Digital Alliance

Brand new to computers? This 4-week, hands-on basic computer course for people who do not know how to use computers. In this course you can learn how to use the mouse, keyboard, and send an email with an attachment. In addition, an introduction to Microsoft Word, Excel and PowerPoint programs is offered. You must pre-register for this course by contacting C. Leticia Serrano at 202-576-3078 or at claudia.serrano@dc.gov or sign in at the front desk at 5171 South Dakota Ave NE, 2nd floor, Washington, DC 20017.

Unemployment Insurance Benefits Services

Customers can file their initial or weekly claims using dcnetworks.org or they can speak with a claims examiner to discuss issues related to their claim from 8:30 am-4:00 pm Monday thru Thursday. On Fridays the office opens from 9:30 am to 4:00 pm. Customers will be received in the center until 4:00 pm. After 4:00 pm, customers may call the UI Call Center at 202-724-7000.

Career Boot Camp Matching Talent To Opportunity

Customers are invited to participate in an intensive 2 hour interviewing skills workshop where branding and networking is discussed. Customers also take part in mock interviews. The workshop begins at 1:30pm and customers are referred by a workforce development specialist only.

Partner Services

Job Corps is a free education and training program that helps young people learn a career, earn a high school diploma or GED, and find and keep a good job. For eligible young people at least 16 years of age (16-24) that qualify as low income, Job Corps provides the all-around skills needed to succeed in a career and in life.

Vocational Rehabilitation Services Mr. Tyrone Jones is available Monday and Tuesday from 9:00am -3:00pm and Mr. Raymond Kinlaw or Ms. Tikeya Milburn will be available Wednesday, Thursday and Friday from 9:00am-3:00pm. Customers must have a center referral (please see a workforce development specialist for a referral).

Staff may also connect job seekers with possible referrals to services that are offered in the community, including services for people with disabilities, mental health services, literacy/ESL/LEP services, etc...
